

O C T O B E R 2 0 0 8

The Mail Chute

Volume 40

No. 8

MaryAnn Bowman, Pres.
P.O. Box 1451
Waukesha, WI 53187

Art Gaffney, Sec.
590 Longbeard Road
Waukesha, WI 53186

Robert Ulatt, Treas
1700 Chestnut Lane
Waukesha, WI 53289

The Waukesha County Philatelic Society meets the second and fourth Thursdays of each month (except July & August) at the Salvation Army Building at 445 Madison Street, Waukesha.

Programs

Extra attention will be paid to the most common form of dementia among older people in September when the Postal Service issued the Alzheimer's Awareness stamp. Art director Ethel Kessler of Bethesda, MD, worked with illustrator Matt Mahurin of Northport, NY, to draw attention to the importance of the caregiver for those who have Alzheimer's disease.

Coming Attractions

Post Card Show - October 19.
St. Aloysius Gonzaga Hall.
West Allis.

TOSAPEX - October 25 - 26.
St. Aloysius Gonzaga Hall.
West Allis

Oct. 9

7:00 Informal Gathering

7:30 Business Meeting

Mini-Auction

Foreign Post Cards - Bring examples from your own collection to share with the group. Earn Stamp Bucks.

Oct. 23

7:00 Informal Gathering

7:30 Non-Philatelic Show & Tell - emphasis on Christmas ornaments and decorations that have a stamp-related theme.

Philatelic Web Sites I Have Visited - Do you have a favorite web site that you go to when you want to learn more about our hobby? Share the name of the site, its address and a little about its content.

Major Fall Auction

The major fall auction will be held November 13. Have your auction lot descriptions to Frank Moertl by the October 23rd meeting. Members can submit up to ten lots. Each lot must have a minimum catalog value of $5.